CRESSE SENT UP FOR TRIAL

The preliminary hearing of the charge against J. W. Cresse, alias Robertson, King, etc., took place at the court house on Tuesday before Magistrate Gresham. Cresse is charged with breaking and entering and stealing a quantity of liquor valued at $592.75, from the local government vendor store on or about October the 1st, 1932.

Cresse has just completed a sentence in Oakalla penitentiary in British Columbia for a similar offense. Accused was defended by Max Moscovich, of Lethbridge, while Sergt. Jones, of Edmonton, who was stationed at Blairmore at the time the offence was committed, prosecuted.

Witnesses included J. Rudd, vendor; Sergt. Jones; John Omega, Lundbreck garageman; Detective-Sergt. Barber, of the British Columbia police; Nelson; Victor Owen, of Cranbrook; William Johnson and T. Gushul, of Blairmore.

Vendor Rudd testified to finding his store open and discovery of the loss of a quantity of liquor to the value as stated above; Sergt. Jones to having investigated a tire trail outside and sacks inside the building. Omega identified the accused as the man who purchased gas from him on the afternoon before the robbery, and noted that on the accused's car were five brand new Atlas tires. Johnson gave evidence to having sold sacks to the accused at the local warehouse of Plunkett & Savage, similar to those found in the liquor store on the morning the robbery was noted. T. Gushul photographed the tire tracks at the rear of the liquor store on the morning following the robbery. Barber and Owen gave evidence in connection with description of car and identification of accused.

Defence was reserved by Moscovich and at the conclusion of the preliminary, Cresse was committed to stand trial at the next court of competent jurisdiction, to be held at Macleod, electing for speedy trial.

BLAIRMORE PUBLIC LIBRARY

Books being placed on the shelves this week are:

"Roles," Elizabeth Alexander; "The Fairest of the Stuarts," Winifred B. Mylechreest; "Boone Stop," Homer Croy; "Princess Amelia," Carol Oman; "Where Rainbows Rest," Cecil Adair; "The Chase," M. Pantier-Downes.

The Library hours are Tuesday, Thursdays and Saturdays from 7 to 9 p.m. The fees are $1.00 for residents and $2.00 for non-residents per year.

ANOTHER PROOF OF BOYCOTT

The Town of Blairmore sent out of Blairmore for a printed form to bill The Blairmore Enterprise for a business tax. Next silly piece of business, please? Of course, it just represents the extent of Knight's interest in Blairmore. Really, we are expected to pay a tax on business outsiders do in our town.

Salmon tagged at Nictaux, a Nova Scotia river across the Bay of Fundy from St. John, in 1931 were taken in nets in Newfoundland in 1932. One fish, tagged at River Philip, N.S., in 1930, was taken from a net in Newfoundland this year.

Pincher Creek will be well represented at the Crow's Nest Pass Musical Festival. Among the individual entries, residents of the district are looking forward with interest to the showing which will be made by the United church junior choir and by the high school girls' choir.

MISSION AT ST. ANNE'S CHURCH

Beginning Sunday, October 15th, and continuing daily until October 22nd, Rev. Father Collins, head of the congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer in Calgary, will, in his own very forceful way, place the teachings and doctrines of the Catholic Church before all who come to hear, the evening sermons being held in the Columbus hall at 7.50.

The Catholic church teaches no fads or fancies, but truth, eternal truth, ever mindful of the commission of Christ to His apostles: "Go, therefore, teach ye all nations." ... teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you, and behold I am with you all days, even to the consummation of the world," Matthew 28:19-20. This world-wide institution goes on unchanged in its doctrine from century to century, ever seeking the lost sheep; ever breaking the bread of life to the weak and faint-hearted; the friend of the poor and the down-trodden; the Way, the Truth and the Life to all men.

The mission gives to all an opportunity of hearing those saving doctrines that Christ died to make known. It is for these same beliefs that St. Peter and the other apostles laid down their lives in martyrdom, that the whole world might hear. For this same reason Catholic missionaries go throughout the world today to preach "Christ and Him Crucified," that the word of the Master may be brought to all; that on the Great Day of Judgment all may be found deserving of Eternal Happiness.

Every individual in the community is invited, everyone is welcome.

SPECIAL TRAIN LIKELY FROM CRANBROOK

Entries for the forthcoming musical festival are pouring in at such a rate that people of Cranbrook and district are seriously considering chartering a special train for the journey to Blairmore, and it has already been suggested that such train should run from Cranbrook to Lethbridge, bringing in people from all intermediate points.

From Cranbrook district alone, the secretary has received upwards of 200 entries, and from all points between Cranbrook and Lethbridge entries have been received.

The home of the Festival, the local Columbus hall, has been thoroughly remodelled and decorated, and is now one of the most attractive and comfortable assembly hall in Southern Alberta, with accommodation for at least seven hundred.

Copies of the festival programme will be off press the early part of next week.

JUST ANOTHER SLAM!

This week, business people of Blairmore received business tax notices, and according to some of the Red followers of Bill Knight, such dues are justly collectable from the business people of main street who are regarded as capitalists. Bill Knight, although occupying, or claiming to own property on main street, which originally cost in the neighborhood of $5,000, is not considered by the dupes as a capitalist. Consequently he is not assessed for any portion of his property under the Business Tax By-Law. Knight claims to be exempt from taxation on a portion of his property through reason it being occupied by a club. Bill Knight should produce his club charter, and thereby show that he is equally entitled to support his won't work.

Mr. Bradley and Mr. Church, of Lethbridge, government roads engineers, were in town this week. Mr. Church and family will take up temporary residence here.

Political Schools

Hon. Vincent Massey, president of the Liberal Federation of Canada, started something when he adopted an idea which has been in operation in Great Britain for a number of years and inaugurated the Liberal Summer Conference held at Port Hope, Ontario, in September. Ontario Conservatives quickly grasped the same idea and followed with a Conservative Summer School at Newmarket. Neither of these gatherings were of a partisan character, nor were they held under the authority of the official party organizations. They were round table conferences for the study and frank discussion of political, economic and social problems. No decisions were formally recorded, nor were resolutions adopted.

Inasmuch as the Liberal Conference was a Dominion-wide gathering, while the Conservative School was an Ontario gathering, and further as the Liberal Conference had been promoted some considerable time in advance of its meeting, Mr. Massey was successful in securing the attendance not only of leaders in the political and economic life of Canada, but men of standing and influence in Great Britain and the United States, including Sir Herbert Samuel, leader of the British Liberal party, and Mr. Moley, the chief of the Roosevelt "brain trust." The Liberal Conference, therefore may be regarded as an indication of the character of these gatherings.

That conference was attended by many Conservatives and by supporters of the C.C.F., as well as by Liberals. Conservative views and Socialist views were just as freely expressed as Liberal views. As a matter of fact, the Liberal Conference and the Conservative School exchanged speakers, while men of Socialist views and public adepts and matters affecting the school. In a word, it was a coming together of men and women keenly interested in the current problems of the day as they affect Canada and the world of which Canada constitutes a part. They came together to study these problems, to obtain expert opinion in regard thereto, to examine and criticize suggested remedies and policies, and to frankly and freely exchange views thereon.

It was a school of citizenship in the highest and truest sense designed to engage some of the best thought of the country in a searching analysis of existing conditions and of suggested remedies designed to overcome the weaknesses and evils existing in our economic life and social order, and the part which governments must take in removing such evils and promoting the continued onward march of civilization and a progressive betterment in our whole standard of life and living.

So successful indeed did these gatherings prove to be, that nothing but praise has been voiced by the press of Canada regardless of political affiliations. These conferences or schools are to be continued next year, and the probability is that such gatherings will be organized to be held in different sections of the Dominion in order that an opportunity may be afforded to a much larger number of earnest citizens to attend and participate in them.

Equally important, perhaps even more important, is another development arising out of these initial gatherings, and that is the formation in many centres across Canada of Discussion Clubs in which men and women deeply interested in public questions and matters affecting the public welfare are meeting and giving earnest heed and study to such matters.

Nothing but good can result from such study carried on quite apart from the partisan controversies and excitements of election campaigns. Speakers before such Discussion Clubs know that every word they utter will be fully weighed; that the facts they submit will be open to investigation; that the suggestions they advance will be minutely examined to determine their soundness, practicability and worth. Special pleading will be at a discount; emotionalism will not convince; but in the freedom of round table discussion, and in what might be termed the clash of intellects and authoritative opinion, knowledge will be advanced.

The inevitable result of such Schools and Discussion Clubs must be to raise the tone of public discussion in Canada. Political platforms of the future will have to be drafted to be something more than mere vote-catching devices; if they are not they will fail to impress and attract the voters. Members of Parliament and of the Legislatures will find it increasingly necessary to keep themselves well informed, fair and convincing in debate rather than merely concerned in gaining some party advantage. There will be a more general recognition of the fact that politics, after all, is not something ignoble and to be shunned, but rather that politics is, in fact and reality, the science of government.

It is to be hoped that this movement for a better educated, more intelligent citizenship will spread far and wide throughout Canada; that it will be encouraged and promoted by all political parties and groups, and that people of every variety and shade of political and economic thought will gather together in earnest study and frank but friendly discussion of what, in the final analysis, are the common concerns of all, in which the interests of all are inextricably bound together.

Some Strange Friendships

Malamute Dog And Black Bear In Alaska Are Good Pals

A part wolf malamute dog fraternizing with a yearling black bear, and a horse herding with a cow moose and calf are peculiar anomalies reported from Kenai Lake, in the heart of the big Alaskan game country.

The dog was observed absenting himself from his owner's cabin at night. While wandering along a trail on a nearby creek, the owner observed the dog dash away to a small thicket. Investigation disclosed the bear cub and dog in a romp of camaraderie.

Recently the horse was observed accompanying a cow moose and her young calf and led them to his salt lick near his owner's corral.

Discovered By Accident

Beautifully Painted Walls Of Egyptian Tomb Bared By Workmen

Beautifully painted walls, probably belonging to a Greco-Roman tomb of the first century, were bared by workmen who were leveling ground for a new football field at the Mustapha barracks for British forces just outside Alexandria, Egypt.

Only the arched gateway, constructed of well-polished natural rock, was uncovered, but the antiquities authorities believe the rest of the edifice is intact because it is in the highest quarter of the city where damage by sea infiltration is least likely; it is at the site of an ancient Roman camp.

A frieze of exquisitely carved human figures on horseback runs round the top of the wall.

Usually archaeological discoveries of Alexandria are of little importance because of the poor state of preservation. Ancient Alexandria was razed many times and because of the restricted space the new city was always constructed on the ruins of the old. Mustapha, however, stands apart from the city and local experts are basing great hopes on the latest discovery.

NEIGHBORS TALK

"I am employed in a theatre and as I help support my mother and sister I like to dress well but haven't very much to spend on clothes. To give the appearance of variety to my slender wardrobe I change the color of a dress or stockings as soon as the others become faded. I always use Diamond Dyes to the work—using them as dyes for dresses and as tints for stockings. I have used them many perfect results that our neighbors talk about the great number of 'new' things I have."

"I learned about Diamond Dyes from our wardrobe mistress. She says she has tried all the dyes on the market but none do such splendid work and are so easy to use as Diamond Dyes. I understand they are the world's most popular dyes—and they deserve to be."

Promises Not Kept

Sir Percy Lake Makes Plea For Better Treatment Of Veterans

Promises of governments to soldiers they would not return when they returned to their homes, had hardly been fulfilled was the feeling among veterans, according to General Sir Percy Lake, of Victoria, en route home after attending the British Empire Service League conference in London.

Referring to placing jobless ex-servicemen in relief camps, Sir Percy said Saturday he thought these men should receive preferential treatment. The veterans should have a chance to make a little money so when they are out of work they would not be destitute on the streets, he added.

Germans Limit Sunday Meal

Simple Dinner Will Leave Extra Cost For Relief

A well-disciplined German public has limited its Sunday dinner to one "hot pot" without trimmings, soup, dessert and fruit, costing no more than 50 pfennigs (about 17 cents).

The gastronomic restrictions were in accordance with a government injunction putting each German on his honor to limit his eating and turn over the balance of his usual Sunday dinner would have cost to the winter relief fund.

Fine Remedy For Acid Stomach

Four out of five people have acid stomach whether they know it or not. Pain after eating, belching, gas, and bloating are all signs of too much acid. A spoonful of Bismarck's Magenta after meals will overcome this condition within three minutes. Any druggist will tell you that. Try it and see.

Horse Coming Back

The return of Dobbin to his former place in the commercial structure is indicated by the remodeling in the village of Murillo near Port Arthur of a garage into a blacksmith shop the same having formerly been turned from a blacksmith shop into a garage.

Electricity Output Higher

An increase of 11.5 per cent. in electrical energy produced in Canada in August as compared with July was shown in returns collected by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. On the other hand, the export figures were lower indicating a greater use of electricity in Canada.

For the first 33 weeks of 1933, ending August 17, the number of hours graded in Canada was 1,999,498.

Engine Lights Attract Foxes

Animals Killed On Railway Tracks In Northern Manitoba

The engineer and fireman of Hudson Bay Railway locomotive No. 2133, have a novel way of capturing the elusive fox.

Running up from Wabowden to Gillam they ran over two of them, one a cross at Mile 208, and the other a red fox at Mile 206 a half hour later. They saw three others on the tracks, but these did not wait until the engine reached them.

When taking the freight from Gillam to Wabowden they ran over a third one. The animal, dazed by the headlights, stood boldly across one of the rails, staring at the oncoming train. This occurred at Mile 250.

The carcass, cut in two, was picked up the morning after by section men at work on the line. The fox was a cross with a handsome pelt.

Lacharite says that at night the foxes sometimes run along the track in front of the train as far as one and two miles. The strong lights of the engine hold an attraction for them.

No Race Prejudices Influence Children

Boys And Girls On Montreal Playgrounds Mingle Agreeably

French, Polish, Ukrainian, Lithuanian and Russian children mix freely and gaily at the Hochelaga ward playground in Montreal, and whatever race prejudices there may be between the older generation finds no echo among these boys and girls, reports a woman supervisor.

"The team work among so many nationalities is something worth noting," she writes. "The spirit improves as the seasons progress. The playground is truly appreciated in our district, as voiced by the children themselves. The parents are grateful too, but the differences of languages make it difficult for them to express their recognition. Actions, however, speak louder than words, and the fact the teacher is sent flowers, or vegetables from the garden, or Polish bread and victuals of different variety bespeaks thanks."

AFTER ACCIDENT SHE PUT ON WEIGHT

Kruschen Took It Off Again!

A woman sends the following account of the consequences of an auto accident in which she was involved:— "I was in a car accident in 1928. I was thrown out of the car and landed on my head. I was in a hospital for three months. I was so badly injured that I could not move. I began to put on flesh. When I was able to walk a little again, I was 144 lbs. and being just under 5 feet you may guess how I was placed. So I thought I would try Kruschen Salt. I must say they have done me a lot of good in every way—but chiefly in keeping my weight down. In three months I lost 6 lbs. Then I left off taking the Kruschen, and I soon went up to 142 lbs. again. So at once I got more Kruschen, and am again steadily reducing. My weight last month was 124 lbs. (Mrs. J. W.H.M.)

Kruschen combats the cause of fat by assisting the internal organs to perform their functions properly—by throwing off each day those waste products and poisons which, if allowed to accumulate, will be converted by the body's chemistry into fatty tissue.

Advocates More Production

Sir Herbert Samuel Out Of Sympathy With Present Policy

Increased world consumption of commodities, not decreased production, should be the aim, Rt. Hon. Sir Herbert Samuel told a Canadian Club luncheon audience at Ottawa. With the policy of decreased production he had no sympathy.

"Surely this is a mad policy," he said. "Statesmanship today is on the wrong lines." He indicated the path, which, he felt, would lead toward prosperity. Production should be encouraged, consumption stimulated, trade channels should be opened, currency stabilized and peace and tranquility developed.

The horse in his attitude to man differs from all other classes of stock in that he produces energy not food.

Wonderful Reference Library

Rogues Gallery At Scotland Yard Is Very Complete

The "Rogues Gallery" at Scotland Yard is the crime reference library of the United Kingdom.

Among the records are the portraits of every known criminal who is regarded as likely to commit an offense.

The picture gallery is but a small section of one of the most important departments at Scotland Yard, the criminal record office.

The Yard does not depend upon the brilliancy of a "Sherlock Holmes" or a "Finger Man" to solve its cases. In the Yard, but prides itself on its organization, one of the chief factors of which is the reference department. This occupies the entire space of one floor.

In it can be found at a moment's notice the biographies of all convicted persons. Their histories can be traced through finger-prints, modus operandi or photographs.

In the picture gallery are many shelves containing volumes of photographs. An elaborate system of filing makes it possible for a clerk to place his finger immediately on a group of thieves who confine themselves to some particular form of robbery.

The policeman's training tells him that the housebreaker seldom turns to fraud; the blackmailer does not attack women.

Two photographs of a criminal, one of the full face and the other of the profile, with a hat on, are taken after he has been convicted and has gone to prison. In the case of a long term prisoner the photographs are taken shortly before he is discharged.

It is not always easy for the authorities to get a good portrait, and frequently a refractory prisoner is photographed through the peephole of his cell when he does not realize what is being done.

These photographs are sent to the Yard, and many a man who has committed a crime of which there was a witness has been traced through them.

Tourists Annoy Ex-Kaiser

As A Result He Isolates Himself In Doorn Castle

Ill-mannered staring and indiscreet remarks by rubbernecking tourists have caused the ex-Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany to isolate himself in his castle at Doorn, Holland.

When the ex-royal went to Holland he was considerably annoyed by visitors who attempted to get into the grounds of Doorn Castle and pry into his personal habits.

"In recent years, however, the ex-kaiser has been left very much alone both by visitors and by the local inhabitants."

Now it is declared he is again being pestered by people who try to inspect him much as one does a zoological exhibit whenever he goes out walking in the narrow streets of Doorn village.

STEWED CUCUMBERS

Four large cucumbers; 1 teaspoon salt; 4 teaspoon pepper; 1 tablespoon butter;  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup sweetened condensed milk; 1 tablespoon flour; 3 teaspoon prepared mustard; juice of  $\frac{1}{2}$  lemon. Pare cucumbers and cut in slices  $\frac{1}{4}$  inch thick. Remove seeds from each slice. Place in boiling water and cook 15 minutes or until tender. Drain. Add salt, pepper and butter. Return to fire. Cover and cook for five minutes. Blend together sweetened condensed milk, flour, mustard and lemon juice. Add to cucumbers. Cook until mixture thickens, stirring constantly. Serve hot. Serves six.

Secure Much Data

Scientists Return From Long Sojourn In The North

"Aurora borealis flashing directly overhead at Fort Rae never came lower to the earth's surface than 55 miles distance during their observations. Dr. J. M. Stagg, leader of the party of British scientists who have spent the last 13 months at Fort Rae, North West Territories, studying northern weather conditions, made this statement.

Dr. Stagg flew from McMurray after coming out by river boat to superintend the transportation of some six tons of valuable instruments used by the scientists in their investigations. Five other members of the party came out some time ago. Until the large volume of data gathered during the 13-month stay in the north had been studied it was impossible to state the result of their observations. Dr. Stagg said. Some 13 months would be required before the data could be placed in publishable form.

Sailor Has Two Mascots

Norwegian Sailing Round World With Dog And Cat As Crew

With about 12,000 miles of lone sailing behind him and many thousands of miles more in front of him if he carries out his plan to cross the Pacific, Capt. Al. Hansen, Forvik, Norway, landed at Toronto recently in his 36-foot Norwegian pilot boat after sailing from Bergen 15 months ago.

Capt. Hansen, after clearing Bergen, touched some English and European ports and then sailed to the Canary Islands. From there his longest run was to Miami, Fla., which he made in 43 days, averaging nearly 100 miles a day.

His dog, Mate, and cat, Sailor II, comprise the crew. Capt. Hansen left for Halifax and later hopes to make for Africa.

Made a Good Guess

A ranger-naturalist was lecturing to a group of visitors in Yellowstone Park. "The mountain lion, the king of beasts in Yellowstone Park, one of the most ferocious animals," he declared. "However, there is one animal of which the lion is afraid. Can anyone tell me which one it is?" "Sure, the lioness," came the immediate response from the rear of the audience.

MAKES STRONG PLEA FOR TOTAL DISARMAMENT

Hastings, England.—The Labor Party pledged its strong resistance to any war, passed a resolution favoring the total disarmament of all nations and heard Arthur Henderson declare the participation of the United States and Russia is necessary in peace conversations sponsored by the League of Nations.

"The road to Washington and Moscow lies through Geneva," said Mr. Henderson, chairman of the world disarmament conference, in explaining that the league is the only instrument for peace organization. He won cheers when he said, "we must abolish the national equipment and institutions that made war possible and the private interests that lived by war."

The party's attitude toward war was supplemented by the equally strong views in the disarmament resolution. This motion favored not only total disarmament of all nations but also the creation of an international police force.

Lower Empire Duties

Australia Takes Steps To Encourage Trade Within Empire

Canberra, Australia.—Prime Minister Joseph A. Lyons, of Australia, announced in his budget speech impending tariff changes which will give goods from Canada and the United Kingdom added preference in the Australian market. The added preference, he said, will be effected through reductions in preferential tariff rates and in prime duty charges on empire products.

Details of proposed reductions in British preferential tariff rates were not revealed, but it was pointed out that these and the prime reductions would enable empire goods to enter Australia at lower rates.

In addition to containing announcement of reductions in income taxes, the budget showed an excess of receipts over expenditures of $3,547,000 for the year ending June 30, 1933. Total revenue for the period amounted to $73,513,000 while expenditures totalled $69,966,000.

Farmers Protest

Charge Discrimination In Removal Of Pegged Minimum Price

North Battleford, Sask.—Charging discrimination against the farmers of northwest Saskatchewan in respect to the removal of the pegged minimum price, wheat pool delegates in session in North Battleford despatched the following telegram to Premier R. B. Bennett: "Wheat pool delegates in session at North Battleford representing northwest Saskatchewan, emphatically request that strong action be taken to stop falling minimum wheat market."

"Removed pegged minimum price discrimination against northern farmer. Lower prices destroying confidence in the London agreement."

"Believe national marketing board is the only solution. Volume, daily exports, should not be a factor, as 200 million bushels guaranteed for next year."

May Arbitrate

Wage Dispute Between Winnipeg Street Railway And Employees Still Goes On

Winnipeg, Man.—Unable to find a basis on which to settle the wage dispute existing between the Winnipeg Electric Company and its traffic employees the conference which has been going on between the company's officials and the negotiations committee of the street railway employees' unit of the One Big Union stood adjourned. No suggestion was made as it is expected now an arbitration board of five members will be appointed as approved by employees in their strike ballot to further investigate the dispute.

Think Port's Future Assured Churchill, Man.—With the restoration of normal crops the future of this northern Manitoba port believed. Despite a temporary setback received when lower lake freight rates were put into effect, sailings equal to last season's record number, carried a greater quantity of grain to overseas ports.

American Airlines American airlines were recently sold to Switzerland's leading air transport company.

Lake Carriers Want Coastal Laws Amended

Chain Higher Rates And More Wheat Shipments Needed

Ottawa, Ont.—The lake carriers are making a vigorous effort to persuade the Federal Government to proclaim the amendment to the coastal laws enacted at the last session of parliament.

It is being urged that unless higher rates can be obtained on the Great Lakes and a larger volume of wheat made available for Canadian owned ships there will not be a solvent company left in the business this fall.

Under the amendment the transshipment of wheat at Buffalo would be stopped, unless carried through-out in Canadian bottoms.

The lake carriers have met a favorable reception at Ottawa. They desire the amendment to be proclaimed now in order that they will reap the maximum advantage on the autumn wheat trade. Apparently most of the cabinet ministers are favorably disposed, but the final decision, it is learned rests with Premier R. B. Bennett. He is said to have requested numerous memoranda giving both sides of the case but has not yet indicated what will be done.

Paris Papers Criticize French Foreign Minister

Making Too Many Concessions To Germans Is Complained

Geneva, Switzerland.—Criticism appearing in Paris newspapers to the effect that Joseph Paul-Boncour, the French foreign minister, was making too many concessions to the Germans, especially regarding the size of the French army, was said to have decided him to go to Paris and consult with the cabinet.

Revelation that a French statesman had conferred with the secretary of Germany's ministry of propaganda, Paul Joseph Goebbels, was said to have excited some of the French leaders.

M. Paul-Boncour told the assembly of the League of Nations that the four-power European peace pact of Great Britain, France, Italy and Germany strengthens the Locarno pact.

Fascist Party Being Developed In England

Young People Studying Movement

Calgary, Alberta.—Within three or four years at the present rate of development, England would have a Fascist party that would be a power to be reckoned with, Hon. Herbert Greenfield told the young men's section of the board of trade. Mr. Greenfield was formerly agent-general for Alberta in London, England.

Unemployment and economic pressure is driving England's youth into the ranks of the Communist and the Fascist, Mr. Greenfield declared. The younger generation is giving profound study to conditions and problems and new movements are springing up.

U.S. Veterans Parade

Col. LaRoche Witnesses Impending Spectacle In Chicago

Chicago.—Like a moving human spectrum, dazzling in color, awe-inspiring in magnitude, the American legion marched 160,000 strong down broad Michigan boulevard.

Then the grand parade of American "Buddies" who did their part in the Great War, along with their women's auxiliaries swung into the Soldier Field amphitheatre to be reviewed by an assemblage of distinguished persons, Col. L. R. LaRoche, Canada's deputy minister of defence, among them.

The march past, which lasted for 10 unbroken hours, was the lone legion activity on the 15th annual convention program.

Dismissed By Nazis

Grandson Of Mendelssohn Loses Position In German University

Hamburg, Germany.—Professor Albrecht Mendelssohn Bartholdy, grandson of the composer Mendelssohn, has been dismissed from the University of Hamburg and the Institute of Foreign Affairs, of which he was head.

Famous in international law, Bartholdy was dismissed because of his Jewish nationality. He was a pioneer in agitating against the claim of Germany's sole war guilt. His grandfather's music is no longer played nationally.

Gerhart Easer, a noted Jewish professor of civil law decorated in the war, also was dismissed.

Will Balance Budget

Conditions In Britain Show Good Improvement

London, Eng.—Neville Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer, told a group of bankers Britain's budget would be balanced this year and that undoubtedly the situation in the United Kingdom offered a more favorable prospect than it did a year ago.

"There is no sign of an approaching doom," said Mr. Chamberlain, "but on the other hand in almost every direction we see indications of definite progress and a growing sense of the confidence that this is no mere flash in the pan, but the beginning of a permanent advance."

The Chancellor said it seemed likely Great Britain ultimately would return to the gold standard.

"But," he continued, "we in this country cannot consent to link our currency to gold until we are certain that the conditions prevailing are such as will permit the gold standard to function effectively."

Movies In Churches

Bishop Of London Has Approved Showing Religious Pictures

London, Eng.—With the approval of the bishop of London "movie" films are to be shown in churches and mission halls throughout his diocese.

The films will include scenes from the life of Christ, the last days of Livingstone, the martyrdom of Becket and incidents of missionary life. A travelling preacher will go round with the movies, and in due time it is hoped to inaugurate this scheme by the introduction of a series of "talkies."

CANADA NOW ON THE ROAD TO RECOVERY

Ottawa, Ont.—Reasons for the opinion Canada is now on the road to recovery are set forth in a statement with which Prime Minister R. B. Bennett will launch the campaign in connection with the refunding loan which will be offered to the public this week.

"With due precaution against unwarranted optimism I think I may say that in Canada we are now on the road to recovery," the Prime Minister declares.

"The events of the past six months appear to demonstrate with increasing clarity that the downward trend has come to a definite stop and that an upward trend is now in progress."

Mr. Bennett turns to the latest statistical reports on industry and trade. These records, he believes, show that Canada's general economic condition reached its lowest point during the month of February last, and that "today we are definitely above that level following a recovery which has been gradual but persistent and unmistakable."

Available records of industry since April show that 116,000 have been added to the payrolls while estimates based on these partial reports place the entire increase in employed persons since that date at 246,000.

External trade figures are also offered as proof of the upswing. Both exports and imports have increased and Canada's surplus of exports over imports during the 12 months ended with August of this year totalled $114,000,000.

"All these facts and figures I think may be quite safely taken as signposts on the road to recovery," the Prime Minister declares.

ONTARIO'S ATTITUDE

Hon. W. G. Martin, Minister of Public Welfare in Ontario, who stated that there is very little likelihood of Ontario adopting in the near future any policy of sterilization for mental defectives.

U.S. Unions Backing Canadian Rail Workers

Full Support Pledged In Dispute Over Wage Cut

Cleveland, Ohio.—A. F. Whitney, chairman of the Railway Labor Executives' Association, said the organization's full support had been pledged to Canadian railroad workers in their campaign against a second 10 per cent wage reduction.

Representatives of the Canadian railroaders conferred with rail-labor officials in his office on June 1. Mr. Whitney said, and at that time a resolution was adopted providing all legal expenses of the Canadian railway reduction campaign would be paid by the railway labor unions and any other needed support would be given.

The resolution, Mr. Whitney said, provided the association should "go as far as possible" in aiding the workers of the Dominion, many of whom, he said, were receiving wages approximately 17 1/2 per cent. lower than rail workers in the same capacities in the United States.

The rail unions have approximately 14,000 members in Canada, Mr. Whitney said.

A Strange Phenomenon

Lake Superior Village Inundated By Action Of Waves

Rosport, Ont.—A wall of water, believed to have been thrown up by earth tremors, under Lake Superior, flooded storerooms and carried away fishing docks at this fishing hamlet. Bay waters receded more than 100 feet, leaving boats moored to the docks suspended in the air. On the backwash, buildings along the bay shoreline were flooded and considerable damage done. The unusual phenomenon occurred several times.

Peculiar action of the water left the lake bottom fully exposed and rocks and boats high and dry. Each succeeding wave rushed back with great force, breaking inland for some considerable distance. No lives were lost.

Rosport is situated 100 miles north of Port Arthur.

Fewer On Relief In B.C.

Victoria, B.C.—Number of persons on relief in British Columbia decreased by 43,347 from the end of March to the end of August, dropping from 132,838 to 89,491. The decrease in August figures from those of July was 9,491, from 98,975 to 89,484.

Obligation Rests With Four Western Provinces

Dominion Government Has No Control Over Refunding Timber Dues

Ottawa, Ont.—The obligation to refund timber dues rests with the four western provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia, and not with the Dominion, under the terms of a judgment handed down by the supreme court of Canada.

In its judgment the court dealt with a reference made to it by the Dominion Government. The reference developed from a dispute between the Dominion and the western provinces concerning dues paid by homesteaders for the privilege of cutting timber on their lands for commercial purposes.

British Steel Plants Busy

News From Sheffield Regarding Business Is Cheering

London, Eng.—Cheering business news came from the United Kingdom's heavy industries, particularly from Sheffield, centre of the steel trade.

C. Walsh, just installed in the historic office of master cutler of Sheffield, reported plants in that city are producing more steel than in pre-war days and that the monthly output is 27,000 tons more than a year ago, a considerable share of this improvement, Walsh said, was a direct result of the tariff on imported steel. He added Sheffield's newer products such as magnets, razor blades and stainless steel had made great strides during the last year.

Supervised Farming

President Beatty Of C.P.R. Favors This Idea

Winnipeg, Man.—Supervision of farming in western Canada is essential to the improvement of farm practices generally and is a necessary incident to any federal immigration scheme in the opinion of E. W. Beatty, K.C., president of the Canadian Pacific Railway. "Farm management, for many years to come, will, I think, be an important factor in the success of farming operations in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta," Mr. Beatty said.

DOLFUSS HAS NARROW ESCAPE FROM ASSASSIN

Vienna.—The step-grandson of an emperor's dentist, welding a dainty steel-shielded vest came within an ace of killing Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss and plunging Austrian and European politics into new and more dangerous confusion.

As it was, however, the two bullets from the gun of Rudolf Dertl, a former corporal in the Austrian army, only grazed the chancellor's left breast and wounded him slightly in the left arm. Dollfuss, after receiving treatment at a hospital, went home within an hour.

Socialist newspapers headlined the accusation that Dertl was a Hitlerite, while, on the other hand, the pro-Dollfuss newspaper Westblatt identified him as a member of the Schutzbund, the dissolved Socialist military organization.

Whatever Dertl's political camp, however, his two bullets were water on a duck's back as far as the diminutive Dollfuss was concerned.

A few hours after the attempt, the little chancellor—four feet, 11 inches tall—was standing in his pyjamas at home delivering a nation-wide address assuring the Austrians he was still up and fighting.

Dollfuss thanked God for the fortunate outcome of the attempt on his life, coupling this with an expression of firm determination to proceed with his patriotic mission. He explained that he took the occasion to make the speech so as to shut off any exaggerated reports of his injury which might circulate.

"That was a close one," was the comment of a chancellor as he left the hospital to return to his home.

The attack was staged at the entrance to the parliament building. As Dollfuss approached, Dertl moved up, apparently with the intention of handing him a manuscript. Police intervened, however, and seized the document. Thereupon, the former corporal stepped back a few paces, drew his gun and fired.

The chancellor was rushed to the hospital. The officers began rounding up political suspects, leading to the belief in some quarters that drastic action against both the Nazis and the Socialists was impending.

DEATH TOLLS HEAVY IN FIRE AT LOS ANGELES

Los Angeles, California.—Twenty-six bodies were recovered from the ruins of a disastrous forest fire in Griffith Park, the city's main playground, a 27th victim died in a hospital, and fire officials expressed relief all others had perished, saying "nearly every foot" of the burned area had been searched.

Those who perished were unemployed relief workers on park roads, called to fight a small blaze starting near the golf course.

Most of the known dead and the more than 125 injured were trapped in a box-like canyon. The wind whirled and sent the flames toward them. Scenes of horror followed as they struggled to escape. More than 1,000 acres of park land were burned over.

Fire and police officials at first attributed the fire to a carelessly discarded cigarette or match. Later, Hollywood detectives arrested Robert D. Barr, 29, for questioning after he had been found, they said, near the scene of some small new blazes started early Wednesday.

The officers said Barr admitted he started a fire in Griffith Park at 10 o'clock at night, but denied having been responsible for the main fire, which began burning nearly eight hours earlier.

While the mayor and district attorney started official investigations, Coroner Frank Announced that an inquest will be held.

Ordered To Kill Looters

Steps Taken To Preserve Order At Havana

Havana.—Four persons met death as looting broke out along the waterfront section of uptown Havana during the height of the second phase of a tropical storm which lashed over the city.

There was wild firing when patrolling soldiers sought to disperse groups of hoodlums. A soldier was fatally wounded, a sailor was killed and two persons were shot to death.

Throughout the city the assembling of groups was forbidden. Army headquarters announced all available soldiers and sailors had been posted in the centre of the city under strict orders to kill looters and suspicious-looking persons.

Along the waterfront drive the water was three feet deep with seas running high and waves dashing over the sea walls.

As it was, however, the storm was moving slowly, the national observatory predicted gales would again sweep Havana. Beien observatory reported a maximum wind velocity of 82 miles p.h.

Farmed In Peace River

Former Westerner May Be Scottish National Labor Candidate

Kilmarnock, Scotland.—Kenneth Lindsay, who farmed in the Peace River district of Alberta 10 years ago while studying emigration, may be the National Labor candidate in the Kilmarnock by-election. Lindsay also lectured in Canada and he was the first Labor president of the Oxford union.

The by-election is due to the appointment of Craigie Aitchison as lord justice-clerk. The only National Laborite elected in Scotland in the last general elections. He had a majority of 7,036 in a straight fight with Labor.

British War Debts

Reported That U.S. Government Plans To Make Reduction

New York.—The Washington correspondent of the Journal of Commerce says it is indicated that the United States government will embark upon a new monetary policy that will make foreign debt governments take the occasion to negotiate looking to settlement of their obligations.

It is further manifest, the correspondent reports, that a substantial scaling down of the British debt must be effected. "The chief domestic problem being as to how this may be accomplished without bringing important adverse repercussions to the Roosevelt administration."

Keeping Within Estimate

Toronto, Ont.—Hon. E. A. Dunlop, Ontario provincial treasurer, has announced the government's plan to cut down unprofitable ordinary expenditures by $4,000,000 had been carried to a successful conclusion and the ordinary expenditure for 1933 would be well within the estimate of $34,950,000.

UPWARD TREND NOW UNDER WAY

Hon. E. N. Rhodes and Prominent Bankers Endorse Bennett's Figures

The Prime Minister's confident and encouraging statement, introducing the new Dominion Loan, has created a very positive and favorable reaction throughout the country. Its clear-cut expression of his conviction that recovery is under way, together with the evidence he cited, have stimulated a growing sense of optimism in business circles which is reflected in the subscriptions to the new loan. There has also been widespread endorsement of his view that, although the road may be long and progress slow, the events of the past six months appear to demonstrate with increasing clarity that the downward trend has come to a definite stop and that the upward trend is in progress.

Some examples of the comment from prominent Canadians follow: Honorable E. N. Rhodes, minister of finance: "As Canadians we must all share in the sense of encouragement that the Prime Minister has inspired by his statement regarding the improvement in business conditions throughout this country. It has called our attention to indications of recovery that have become increasingly definite with each succeeding month, and which have been so sustained and consistent that one can no longer doubt their significance."

Spirit of Confidence

Sir Thomas White, Vice-President Canadian Bank of Commerce: "I fully concur with the statement of the Prime Minister as to the untarnished which has taken place progressively in Canadian business during the past few months. In almost every branch of the country's economic life there has been manifest a slow but steady advance from the low point of last April. Despite adverse crop conditions I found, during my recent tour of the West, not only a spirit of confidence but quite noticeable signs of improvement."

Professor Gilbert Jackson, Director of the courses in commerce and finance of the University of Toronto and economist of the Bank of Nova Scotia: "The very temperate statement made by the Prime Minister with reference to recent improvements in Canada is fully validated by the fact. Not only have the physical volume of business and production increase since February by thirty-four per cent, but an even more encouraging point is that the prices of basic commodities have risen approximately in the same ratio. This has been followed by marked increase in manufacturing activity. Even in construction there are signs of improvement. Most encouraging of all is the increased confidence of the public in the situation evidenced by their increased readiness to spend. The rate of turnover of bank deposits has increased very rapidly since the spring."

Improvement is Definite

M. W. Wilson, vice-president and general manager of The Royal Bank of Canada: "The Prime Minister has quoted statistics to show that there are definite signs of trade recovery in Canada, but, in my opinion, these statistics do not fully reflect the improvement which has occurred. While there are still a number of clouds on the business horizon, notably the low price of wheat and the partial crop failure, business throughout Canada has shown a definite, and, in a number of industries, a marked improvement, and my confidence in a continued upward trend is strengthened by the background of what seems to be a definite world-wide recovery. It would be foolish to minimize the seriousness and extent of the problems still facing us, but the evidence of improvement will enable us to tackle those with greater heart and spirit. We are now offered an opportunity to show our confidence in ourselves and Canada in supporting the government in its essential financial operations. Dominion of Canada Bonds are the premier securities available to investors."

REFORESTATION WORK

Extent of the reforestation work commenced by the forest service branch of the provincial lands and mines department last spring is indicated in a report recently made on the work, which shows that the total number of caragana plants distributed was 685,500; the number of white spruce was 7,735, and the number of lodge pole pine was 360. The seedlings were distributed to individual farmers throughout the province, communities, institutions and schools for building of windbreaks and beautifying purposes, as well as in an effort to promote development of coniferous growth among the poplar bluffs on farms and elsewhere. The number of individuals to which seedlings were distributed totalled 785, in addition to which 56 schools, 51 institutions and 7 municipalities received material on request.

RABBITS IN YOUR HAT

Montreal, Que., Sept. 11.—The average man would say "Oh Yeah?" if he was told he was sporting a rabbit skin on his head, but ten chances to one, the felt hat he was wearing was made out of rabbit skins. In Australia the rabbit is a pest, although prior to the coming of the white man that continent he was practically unknown. Rabbits inflict enormous damage to crops and pastures in that Dominion, but some measure of pecuniary return is made by the rabbit in his skin for which he is hunted and which is an added incentive towards the extermination of his species. Some idea of the extent of the industry may be gleaned from the fact that the Sydney sales for the year 1931-32 alone represented some 34,668,680 rabbits disposed of to yield 2,211 tons of skins which were sold on that market during that period. The skins are exported principally to Great Britain and North America, where they are manufactured into felt for hats, and the latter qualities used by furriers.

Teacher (in English class): "Johnny, take this sentence: 'Lend the cow from the pasture. What mad?' Johnny: 'The cow, ma'am.'"

An old negro woman walked into an insurance office and said she wanted some fire insurance. The clerk asked her what she wanted to insure.

"Mah husband," she replied. "Then you don't want fire insurance," said the clerk. "What you want is life insurance."

"No I don't," explained the woman. "I want fire insurance. Mah husband has been fired 'fo' times in the last two weeks."

Hard on Methodists

A Methodist minister was travelling through the mountain regions of the South and stopped at a cabin. Knocking on the door, an old woman answered.

"Beg pardon, ma'am, but can you tell me if there are any Methodists in these parts?"

"Wp-al, I dunno. My man shot something the other day when he went huntin'—but I dunno if it was Methodist or not. Its hide is tacked up out there on the barn and you all can go out and see for yourself."

SAYS CANADIANS TAKING RELIEF BETTER OFF

Montreal, Oct. 3.—A Canadian on relief is better off than any workingman in Russia, in the opinion of Humphrey Mitchell, the Labor M.P. for East Hamilton, who returned recently from a tour of Europe, which included three weeks in Russia.

A picture of a Russia of privation and hardship, of wretched food and exorbitant prices, was painted by the Hamilton Laborite—himself a workingman—when he reached here on the S.S. Duchess of Bedford.

"The average man on relief in Canada is better off than any Russian worker," he declared.

"It is perfectly all right for Bernard Shaw and others to go to Russia and come back singing its praises. That seems to be the popular thing to do. But to see Russia as Shaw saw it, and as anyone who has official guides sees it, is just about the same as trying to find out how much unemployment there is in Toronto by sitting in a room in the Royal York."

Mr. Mitchell is a working man, an electrician. Born in Sussex, he came to Canada in his teens and has lived in Hamilton ever since. He knows the labor movement in England, can call most of the English labor leaders by their first names. He knows the laborites in Canada—and the Communists, too. He has known Tim Buck for years and knows, as well, those other Communists now in Kingston penitentiary with Buck.

All of which should explain that Mr. Mitchell did not go to Russia with the idea of knocking the five-year plan. "I went there," he said today, "to find out for myself whether the Russian plan would apply to Canada. It would not."

Mr. Mitchell was three weeks in Russia. He visited Moscow, Leningrad and took a tour of the wheat-growing Ukraine. He summed up his impressions in that one sentence—"A Canadian on relief is better off than a Russian workingman."

"It will take fifty years to teach them to wash themselves," Mr. Mitchell declared. He told an odd story about a girl who sold newspapers in a kiosk. An Oxford professor who was travelling with Mr. Mitchell, talked to this girl about books. She said she would like to have a volume of Shakespeare. "You know," said Mr. Mitchell, "books are scarce in Russia because paper is scarce. Everything is scarce."

The Oxonian told the girl he would send her an edition of Shakespeare as soon as he returned to England. She thanked him profusely. Next day he was at the kiosk again to buy a newspaper.

"I've been thinking that over," the girl told him. "Would it be too much to ask you not to send the Shakespeare, but to send me some cheese instead?"

A German friend of Mr. Mitchell's bought some food. He paid $3.25 for three eggs—one of them had a little bread and some fish.

Mr. Mitchell was riding on a train, between Moscow and Leningrad, with a British trade union official. Mr. Mitchell was using British currency—the Englishman had changed his money to the internal Russian bills. They each ordered a bottle of beer. The Canadian paid one and three pence, British currency, for his beer. The Englishman, using Russian money, paid the equivalent of nine shillings.

"I said to him, nine shillings for a bottle of beer, you could start a revolution in England with that," Mr. Mitchell remarked, laughing.

He told of an English girl, a member of the Friends of Soviet Russia, who went to Moscow with high ideals and came back with a case of ringworm. She had unfortunately been obliged to ride a good deal on the Russian trains.

Mr. Mitchell is of the opinion that Canada or any other Anglo-Saxon nation cannot compete with Russia in the production of raw materials, such as lumber and wheat. "The price is no consideration with them," he explained. "They have to secure credits abroad. To do that, they will take anything for their raw products, particularly because all the production is controlled by the state, and the state can ordain what a man shall earn."

Earnings, according to Mr. Mitchell, are very small. He figured it out on the basis of what a man's wages would buy. "A man works a third of a month for a pair of shoes," he said.

The staple diet of the Russian worker, according to Mr. Mitchell, is black bread and salted fish. He saw women lined up in queues, waiting four or five hours to get this bread and fish.

"Of course," he explained, "you must remember that waiting hours like that is not such a serious matter to the Slav as it is to us. The Russians, after all, are more of the Oriental temperament, and time means very little to them."

That, he believed, was the principal reason why the Russian industrialization scheme—the five-year plan—would encounter great difficulties.

He remarked that he told Russian officials that they were only now trying to do what Great Britain had done hundreds of years ago.

"I want to be fair," Mr. Mitchell said. "I tried to be fair in seeing what I saw in Russia. They are attempting something big—but so is Roosevelt. They are trying to catch up. They are trying to do in five years what we have done in centuries. It was with that view that I entered the country. My conclusion is that you cannot advance a people ten years or even fifty years over the road that Russia must go to be on an equal basis with the Anglo-Saxon world."

Mr. Mitchell's view was that eventually Russia would adopt a democratic form of government. He has a great respect for Lenin, who will

BUSINESS ON UPWARD TREND

Montreal, Que., October 9.—Latest figures available continue to show in the aggregate a general upward trend in the business world, states the Industrial Department of the C. N.R.

In this respect, the outstanding feature is the increase in imports to the United Kingdom and British Empire countries under the Empire trade pact made at Ottawa in 1932. For the twelve months ending July, this year, Canada's export trade with the United Kingdom increased 9.9% and British Empire countries 10.1%, percentages as at the end of July being 41.3% and 49.4% respectively. There was a decline in exports to foreign countries of 10.1%, figures for July, 1933, standing at 50.6%.

British Columbia's canned salmon pack for the present season, up to September 23rd, totalled 1,037,015 cases, compared to 949,211 cases for the corresponding period last year, and 646,015 cases for 1931. This season's pack included 234,757 sockeyes, 17,257 springs, 1,235 steel heads, 21,214 bluebacks, 111,506 cohoes, 512,967 pinks, and 117,989 chums.

The history calendar of a Canadian National Railways' official recalls that September 27th was the 108th anniversary of the commencement of the world's first steam railway, the Stockton and Darlington Railway, in Great Britain. The occasion brings to mind old locomotives that "died" five and ten miles per hour; weird, noisy contraptions, that seemed scarcely an improvement over the horses they replaced. One such locomotive proceeded by a ratchet-like traction on cogged rails. Another had grasshopper-like projections, which "kicked" it along. In the beginning it was the rail which had the guiding flange, instead of flange being on the car wheels. For years important interests, and perhaps a majority of the people at large, bitterly opposed the introduction of steam railways.

"I hear your son has taken up a profession, Mr. O'Casey," remarked the visitor to the house.

"He has, indeed," replied the host. "He's phwat they call a cross examiner."

This was too much for the stranger. "And phwat's a cross examiner?" For a minute or two, Casey was at a loss, but eventually he pulled himself together. "Sure, it's a fellow who asks you questions, an' you answer the questions, an' then he questions the answer," he returned, wearily.

SYNOPSIS

Camilla Hoyt, young and beautiful, falls in love with Peter Anson, fellow student in an art school. She is the adopted daughter of a wealthy family, and he is a poor, struggling sculptor. On their first date Peter spends most of his money to show Camilla a good time, and then decides he must give her up because he cannot stand the financial pace. A chance meeting, however, paves the way for another date. This time they walk in the park. Camilla tells Peter that she is not rich; or, at least, will not inherit the Hoyt fortune. Peter in turn confesses he is practically penniless. They fall into each other's arms. Together, in the park, Peter and Camilla try to arrive at some plan for the future. Mrs. Hoyt, Camilla's foster mother, suspects from Camilla's actions that a romance is brewing. She is anxious to see Camilla wed wealth. Mrs. Hoyt immediately begins to question the girl about the interest Peter is showing her. She manages to be present on one occasion when Peter calls for Camilla, but the latter's clever stage management thwarts her plan. At a school party, Avis Werth, another wealthy art student, who is attracted to Peter, claims a dance with him, and in the meantime Camilla disappears. Peter had last seen her with Gus Matson, his roommate, whom he has befriended.

Now Go On With The Story

CHAPTER XIII.

When Peter first had admitted to Gus that he was serious about Camilla Hoyt, the latter had ridiculed his friend with jeering scorn. "Sure, if you want to land in the gutter just go ahead and fall for all the avoid dames that cherish your handsome mug. Be a gigolo. Let some bitches pay your tailor and your barman, and your hotel bills and lead you around by a gold leash and collar. Go on, you're built just for that. Let us men who are not so good to look at, do the work of the world and take the honors."

"That'll do for you," Peter warned, half angry. "Whether or not I love Camilla and whether or not I love money, will not affect my work in the least."

"Oh, no? Well, I've seen that work-out. And it's a wash-out, always. Forget the love-slush, kid, and be a man."

"When you find love, you are a man," Peter said soberly. "If you weren't one before, you have to be then."

"Say, what a kinda true confession magazines have you been reading? I thought I was watchin' your habits better'n that!" he jeered.

To escape such tirades without an exhibition of anger, Peter had decided that if Gus knew Camilla, he would understand how serious he was about her. So he arranged for them to meet. The three had dined together one evening, in an obscure little restaurant on a side street where a prominent sign in the window had proclaimed, "All You Can Eat for 60c." Camilla had insisted upon going there when Peter suggested the dinner.

He had demurred.

"Where," she demanded, "would you and Gus have dinner, if you were alone? Tell me the truth."

He met her eyes with an amused gleam. "Well, the best kind of place to take Gus is one where they advertise a fat rat. He's a smaller man than I am but his capacity for food is on the down and down."

"That is where we shall go then—to a fat-rate restaurant. You and one or I shan't go anywhere with you."

That was that, and settled the matter. The walls of the restaurant which they selected were of green tile decorated with a black frieze, instead of painted murals and tapestries. The music was of clattering nickel-silver on vitrolite tables and soprano voices of waitresses calling their orders to the cook.

"But what are you gonna do with her, kid? You can't afford a wife like that any more than you can own a Rolls-Royce or a yacht. The up-keep is about the same. Or do the car and the yacht go with her?"

"Yeah? Whether thou goest, I will go—that kind of honey? Say, kid," he pushed his hands away with a gesture of disdain. "That's what they all say until they get you. Then when they've slipped the collar and chain on, they make you do the followin' and take all the fancy steps they do, besides. Good-bye career, for you."

Peter did not enlighten Gus concerning Camilla's situation. That was her secret, and her private affair, anyway. So he ignored Gus's ridicule and dire prophecies, and avoided further references to Camilla as much as possible. The two had met subsequently in the routine of classes, and Gus had been affable in his attentions to Camilla at tonight's reception.

The second time he danced with her, he remarked in a confidential tone, "You're pretty keen about Peter, I guess."

"Everyone likes Peter," she agreed. "Sure, swell guy. But I mean seriously, Miss Hoyt, you and Peter have things settled pretty well, I believe."

"Did Peter tell you?" surprised.

"No, but I have two eyes, two ears and a brain that works every other impulse or so," he grinned indulgently. Camilla laughed. "Well?"

He sobered. "I didn't ask you that."

"I'll Not Listen To Another Word."

Just to be inquisitive. I had a reason, and a good one. I know some things about Peter that I think it's my duty to tell you. For his good and your own."

Camilla looked up anxiously, with a little puzzled frown. "I shouldn't want to know anything about Peter that he didn't tell me, himself."

"Why not?" he demanded.

"Why—that wouldn't be fair to him, it seems to me."

"You're a queer one," he said. "That's when a woman can be the most help to a man, when she knows things about him he tries to keep from her. How about that first night when he took you out and almost broke the bank tryin' to bluff you into thinkin' he was in your class?"

"That was sufficient argument for Camilla. She never had overcome her chagrin over that episode. "Well, of course, anything like that," she admitted.

"Exactly what I mean," he declared.

"Why, if there is anything I can do to help Peter instead of hurting his chances, I'd like to know about it," she agreed.

"How about walkin' outside for the rest of this dance while I tell you something, then, for your own good as well as his?" Gus invited.

Camilla consented readily. They strolled toward the lilac hedge, which was no longer fragrant with panicle of bloom, but the night was sweet and warm with the promise of summer. "There are some benches around here, somewhere," he said. "We could sit down and rest while we talk."

EATS DIRT

Camilla knew well where the benches were, and located one easily. "Whew!" exclaimed Gus, "Society's not in my line. A little of that goes a long way with me. Of course," he amended in a lower voice, "it's different dancin' with a swell girl like you."

"Let's talk about Peter," she suggested quickly. "What do you think I should know about him, Mr. Matson?"

"So she doesn't want to hear about me, at all," he soliloquized. "I don't count. She wants to know about Peter. Aw' right, aw' right, baby, get a load of this." He announced abruptly in reply to her question, "That he's a cheat and a double-crosser!"

Camilla gasped, astonished to al-

ent. He scoffed at refinement and knew all there was to know, told the world, too, in no uncertain terms. She had tolerated him only for Peter's sake, who pitied him and believed that what he needed and deserved was a helping hand. Peter was so kind-hearted and glib, and this was the way he was being repaid for his charity.

Radio Burglar Alarm

Device Made By Japanese Firm Is Also Advertising Novelty

A novel burglar alarm which may also be used as an advertising device is claimed to have been developed by a Japanese firm, according to Assistant Trade Commissioner Donald W. Smith in Tokyo.

The new device which is called the "Radio Alarm," operates from the electric capacity contained in the human body. The delicate apparatus of the machine immediately starts an alarm ringing, switches on the electric lighting system or automatically fires a gun when a person comes within the range of the device.

The "radio alarm" may also be used in connection with advertising displays in shop windows. A dark window may be suddenly illuminated when a pedestrian approaches. The merchandise within the shop window may be caused to move, and advertisement signs made to flash on and off. The new device is small and compact, the entire apparatus being contained in a case 10 1/2 x 7 x 1 1/2 inches. Its makers claim that it is durable and requires no extra attention after installation. The device does not operate from the electric current supply and it is claimed that it never fails to function.

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By Aline Michaelis

SUCH AS I HAVE

The poet quotes: "Silver and gold have I none."

But such as I have I will give unto you."

And he shows men the sunrise and setting sun.

And the April sky with its rain-washed blue.

He lifts up the veil from their listless eyes.

To give them the glamour of sea and shore.

He opens their ears to the four winds sighs.

And to the sirens' song through the breakers' roar.

"Of such as I have I will give," cries he.

And he teaches the goodness which dwells unguessed.

The spark divine which few eyes can see.

That is glowing deep in the human breast.

Of patience and sacrifice he writes. Of the long endeavor, the starry goal, until in the end his message lights An answering gleam in each listening soul.

War On The Hitch-Hiker

The Royal Automobile Club of Canada, a Montreal organization, has declared war on hitch-hikers and is endeavoring to enlist the support of the provincial and municipal police forces in a campaign to stamp out this ever-growing highway nuisance which, this summer, threatened to menace the safety of motorists on the highways and city streets.

In one day recently $2,000,000 in gold was landed in England from India.

Little Helps For This Week

"Whoso putteth his trust in the Lord shall be safe."—Proverbs 29:25. "I will cry unto God most high, for God that performeth all things for me."—Psalm 57:2.

May all our restless hearts keep still, And wait in cheerful hope; content To take what'er His gracious will, His all-discerning love hath sent;

Not doubt our latest wants are known To Him who chose us for His own.

G. N. Edmunds.

God has brought us unto this time.

If we are not fit to cope with that which he has prepared for us, we should have been utterly unfit for any condition we imagine for ourselves. In this time we are to live and wrestle, and no other. Let us humbly look at it, and we shall not wish that the sun could go back its ten degrees, or that we could go back with it. If easy times have departed it is that the difficult times may make us more in earnest; that they may teach us not to depend on ourselves. If easy belief is impossible, it is that we may learn what belief is, and in whom it is to be placed.—W. D. Maurier.

Girl Repairs Famous Clock

Accomplished Task Which Baffled New York's Male Clockmakers

A twenty-year-old girl accomplished a task which had baffled New York's best male clockmakers, and the Hotel Martinique's famous 300-year-old clock again is ticking after being silent for a week.

The girl, Miss Louise Weyer, of Astoria, L.I., read of the $30,000 clock's stopping for the first time since it was placed in the hotel's lobby in 1911, and of the absence from the city of the clocksmith who regularly tends it.

She volunteered her services, donned a smock and soon had the clock operating again.

Three-Year Silence Broken

Wireless Contact Established With Mounties In Arctic Post

A three-year silence of the Arctic was broken when Royal Canadian Mounted Police, headquarters established wireless contact with Canada's far northern police patrol from Bache Peninsula, 700 miles from the North Pole. "All is well," reported Corporal H. W. Stailworthy, and Constable H. W. Hamilton, and A. Munro in their first message to the outside world in three years of lonely Arctic patrol. Bache Peninsula, one of the most inaccessible police posts in the north, has been evacuated, the post being moved to Craig Harbor because of difficulty of transporting supplies.
